
Mitchell J. Olin

EXPERIENCE

Retired Attorney with over 20 years in private law practice. (Federal and State Courts). General practice with emphasis on civil litigation, personal injury, civil rights, construction law, foreclosure, torts, landlord/tenant, consumer protection, probate/guardianship, family law, employment law, insurance bad faith, criminal defense, commercial litigation, contracts, police and government misconduct, USC §1983, UDEPTA claims, real estate, appellate proceedings, among others.

EDUCATION

Associate Arts degrees in Psychology and Business Administration (Florida State University – 1982), Tallahassee, Florida

Bachelor of Science degree in Criminology (Florida State University - 1982), Tallahassee , Florida

JD degree (Thomas M. Cooley Law school -1986), Lansing, Michigan